(Revised 1/3/11)

September 4, 2019

Dear Sarah,

Hope all is well with you. We are organizing a Senate staffer delegation to travel to Dharamsala, which is the seat of the Central Tibetan Administration and where the Dalai Lama has been residing since he was forced into exile 60 years ago. The trip is tentatively scheduled for September 28 to October 4, 2019.

As you know, we have done similar staffer delegations in previous years and we would be honored if you could consider joining this time. We are hoping to put together a small delegation of of 3-4 staffers interested in foreign policy to deepen their knowledge of Tibetan culture and of their struggle to maintain it, which the US Congress has been supporting for three decades. I can assure you it is a wonderful trip and experience.

Looking forward to hearing from you and please do not hesitate to get in touch if you have any questions.

Best regards,

Matteo Mecacci

President

The group will have a brief tour which will provide a glimpse of the day to day life and visit a few businesses to understand the local economy and see some of the handicrafts produced by Tibetan refugees. For example, the Tibetan Children Village Handicraft shop which has products made by students from their vocational training center and the proceeds directly benefit the TCV school (we will visit TCV school on October 2). And we will see some of the grassroots social and charitable organizations located around town that cater to various needs of the refugee community such as the Lha Charitable Trust, a grassroots volunteer organization that provides resources for the local community like language classes, clean water and soup kitchen programs.

7:00pm – 8:30pm Dinner with ICT members

The International Campaign is an organization supported by a worldwide community of dedicated members who care about Tibet and support the ICT's ongoing programs. Every year, ICT invites a small group of members (upto 15) to visit Dharamsala during one of His Holiness the Dalai Lama's public teachings. This trip happens to coincide with the staff trip. We will learn about their experiences and what issues bring them to care about Tibet.

Tuesday, Oct. 1

7:30am Briefing breakfast with ICT president, Mr. Matteo Mecacci.

Overview of schedule, programs and meetings in Dharamsala.

8:00 am Audience with His Holiness the Dalai Lama

His Holiness the Dalai Lama is the spiritual leader of the Tibetan people. He was forced to flee into exile in 1959. He is one of the world's foremost exponents of non-violence and was awarded the Nobel Peace prize in 1989. The Dalai Lama has developed his Middle Way initiative to resolve the Tibetan issue in consideration of the interest of both the Tibetans and the Chinese people. Facing the threat of religious and cultural extinction and believing in resolving conflicts through serious dialogue and not confrontation, the Dalai Lama has since many decades relinquished the goal of independence of Tibet in favor of genuine autonomy — a proposal that is consistent with the Chinese Constitution. This approach also takes into consideration the People's Republic of China's security and stability concerns. The group is scheduled to have a brief audience with His Holiness and may have opportunity to discuss the Tibetan issue and His Holiness's middle way approach.

how his administration is working towards finding a solution for the future of Tibet in light of the current challenges including political, environmental,

9:15 am Depart for CTA

Meeting with Dr. Lobsang Sangay, President (Sikyong), Central Tibetan 9:30 am Administration (CTA). Established in April 1959, the CTA is the continuation of the government of Tibet in exile and the true representative of the Tibetan people. The Sikyong or President of the CTA is elected by the Tibetans in exile and heads the Kashag, the highest executive office of the CTA which runs and fulfills all its executive and administrative responsibilities. The Sikyong will discuss the CTA's various projects, and cultural, economic challenges.

10:30 am Meeting with Speaker and Deputy Speaker of Tibetan Parliament in Exile Instituted in 1960, the Tibetan Parliament-in-Exile is the highest legislative organ of the Tibetan refugee community. The Tibetan Parliament-in-Exile is headed by a Speaker and a Deputy Speaker, who are elected by the members amongst themselves. The Speaker and Deputy Speaker will update on the work of the Tibetan Parliament and Tibetan people's efforts to transition to a secular democracy in exile. This interaction offers an opportunity to understand Tibetan democratic process in exile.

Briefing with Tibet Policy Institute (TPI) and Tibetan Center for Democracy and Human Rights (TCHRD). The TPI serves as a think tank and intellectual hub for the CTA, gathering scholars and experts on topics related to Tibet. The TCHRD is a non-governmental human rights organization that monitors, researches and produces information on human rights situation in Tibet. We will hear from some of the scholars about their research and analysis. We will also hear from Ms. Tsering Tsomo, Executive Director, TCHRD, who will give an overview of the current human rights

12:30 pm Lunch

1:30 pm Visit Library of Tibetan Works and Archives (LTWA)

> The LTWA serves as a national library, museum, and archive for the Tibetan community and is also a repository for significant collections of artifacts, manuscripts and other records, while also serving as a center for language and cultural education. Tibetan refugees have carried hundreds of ancient Tibetan manuscripts into India, often guarding them with their lives. Many of these precious texts are preserved in this Institute and today, it is internationally recognized as a pre-eminent education center, and houses numerous manuscripts and artifacts in its museum. We will meet Ven. Geshe Lhakdor, Director of the Museum to gain an understanding of the Institute > situation in Tibet. This session will enable the delegation to see how Tibetan researchers and human rights advocates are undertaking their work in exile.

11:30 am

Overview of schedule, programs and meetings in Dharamsala.

9:30 am Depart hotel

10:00am Visit and Tour of Tibetan Children's Village School (TCV)

The Tibetan Children's Village was established in early 1960 to give much needed care and education to the many children who had been orphaned or separated from their families while arriving as refugees in India. TCV today has several thousand children under its care and the school model has received numerous awards and praise for its work with Tibetan children. The group will visit the school, classrooms, observe how Tibetan language, culture are taught alongside a modern education. Meet Mr. Thupten Dorjee, President of the Tibetan Children's Village School and learn about their efforts to educate and raise children in the diaspora while keeping their language, identity and connections to the homeland.

Noon Lunch and di

Lunch and discussion on SEE Learning with Mr. Tempa Tsering
Mr. Tempa Tsering will introduce and lead a discussion on the Social, Emotional, and Ethical (SEE) Learning Initiative. SEE Learning initiative is an innovative K-12 education program developed by Emory University, at the behest of His Holiness. It provides educators with tools to foster the development of emotional, social and ethical intelligence for students and themselves. It is rooted in a vision of a human society with genuine sense of concern for each other and collective responsibility for global welfare.
Envisioning a human society with genuine sense of concern for each other and collective responsibility for global welfare, His Holiness proposed an educational transformation grounded in the perspective that the seven billion human beings are completely equal in wanting to be happy, not wanting to suffer and together in cooperation, we stand to gain for

2:00pm Depart for Mcloed Ganj

2:30pm Meeting with Tibetan NGOs

ourselves and our community.

We will meet with leaders from Tibetan Youth Congress (TYC), the National Democratic Party (NDP) and Tibetan Women's Association (TWA). The TYC, established in 1970, is a non-governmental organization of Tibetans that advocates for independence of Tibet. The National Democratic Party, is a membership based political party founded by the TYC in in 1994, and operates as the only Tibetan national political party with its mission statement, manifesto and elected leadership. The third organization, TWA was formally established in 1984, and works to promote Tibetan women's empowerment and raise global awareness of the critical situation in Tibet. They will discuss their work and engagement within the Tibetan diaspora communities.

3:45pm Depart for Tsug-la-khang

4:00 pm Visit the Tsug-lag-khang, Namgyal Monastery

The Tsuglagkhang (pronounced Su-Lag-khang) refers to the main temple that is near the residence of His Holiness the Dalai Lama and Namgyal Monastery, which is next door to it. The Tsuglagkhang is the first temple built by the Tibetans in exile and contains numerous sacred Buddhist statues that Tibetan refugees rescued from Tibet and brought with them into exile. It Namgyal Monastery is historically connected to the Dalai Lamas and Tibetan historical heritage. It is the personal monastery of His Holiness the Dalai Lama, and is non-sectarian and responsible for maintaining ritual practices and teachings of all the four main lineages of Tibetan Buddhism. The monks of Namgyal perform all the rites and rituals for the successive Dalai Lamas and are especially adept ritual dances and offering creations like sand mandalas and butter sculptures. The visit will provide an overview of Tibetan Buddhist's traditional way of learning and life in the monasteries.
